Question	Answer(s)
don't have the mini scoupe	You can use a spoon, or your fingers really, or shake from the jar... we can get you a scoop later in the mail.
is this prestamped? i only have one that is stamped and my slim panel is blank	Yes the slim panel should have the sunflowers printed on it.
mine is not pre-stamped either :(Not a problem, i'll just catch up on replay	mine is not pre-stamped either :(Not a problem, i'll just catch up on replay are we supposed to have 2 stamped sunflower panels? I dont have anything with a pine cone	The panel for the card should be stamped. The gift card wallet panel might not be. Let me verify.
Can you please repeat the powder colors	Chunky White Sparkle Puff (white with sparkles) Silver Tinsel Frozen Ice Tinsel Winter Wonderland (white with silver)
Notes & tips from Laura Weed in the chat section: Fran uses Prismacolor Pencils Pumpkin Spice - orange one Aged Spice kind of red Seasonings is multiple metallic and black color no ink or glue...just sprinkle on andwe will heat from underneath try sprinkling very lightly..you can always add more. Great Michele... the panel for the sunflowers is 3-3/4" X 8-1/4" Darker card is Goldenrod. Lighter is Tuscan Sun. Our kraft paper is Desert Storm from Neenah And, again, Prismacolor Pencils Chunky white has a much larger granulation. Using Sparkle Puff and VersaMarker now on brims of hats, muffs, pom poms on gnomes Use the brush to push the powder off faces, mittens, etc... You want a good thick layer of Sparkle Puff... I often do it twice to get max-puff. :)	Individual jar item numbers FREG021 Chunky White EP525 Sparkle Puff (white with sparkles) TP101 Silver Tinsel TP617 Frozen Ice Tinsel EP171 Winter Wonderland (white with silver)

Do the small jars come un-marked like in our package?	You can buy the empty jars? is that what you mean?
